Program

Resistant Teens and Parenting Time Orders

Presenters

Megan Sherr, Esq., Courtney McConomy, Esq., and Jane Irvine, M.A., LPC, NCC

How should the wishes of teenagers regarding parenting time schedules be weighed? Do teens "vote with their feet?" Can parents be expected to insist that they adhere to the parenting schedule? This program will discuss the unique developmental realities of teenagers, the impact of parental conflict on them, and what case law has to say about compelling children to adhere to court-ordered parenting time. Practical tips and solutions will be offered.

2 General Credit CLEs have been approved

Certificates of Attendance will be provided electronically for non-legal professionals.

Space is limited so register early! Deadline to register is September 13th at 12:00 noon.
Register Online at: <http://www.coafcc.org>
