Reimagining the Best Interests of Children

Innovative Approaches for Divorce Professionals Committed to Child-Centered Solutions

An Exclusive Screening of SPLIT UP: The Teen Years

with panel discussion & mixer

Join us for one of three professional Colorado-based gatherings. It's a great opportunity for family law practitioners, mediators, divorce coaches, and mental health professionals to engage in a conversation about reshaping the best interest standards for children - informed by the actual experiences of children.

Following the screening, there will be a thought-provoking panel discussion moderated by Dr. Lisa Marie Bobby – Founder of Growing Self Counseling and Coaching featuring:

- Ellen Bruno – Producer & founder - The SPLIT Outreach Project
- Christina McGhee - Divorce Parenting Expert & Educational Director - The SPLIT Outreach Project
- Rich Harris - Managing Partner of The Harris Law Firm
- Judge William Moller (Colorado Springs)
- Judge Susan Blanco & Magistrate Dina Christiansen (Fort Collins)
- Magistrate Karen Hubler (Denver)

IN THIS SESSION PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Gain insight regarding the short and long-term effects of divorce for children over time and the over-arching implications of parent's decisions on children's lives.
- Discover how to identify critical issues surrounding children's needs when parents divorce, considerations for approaching scheduling and time-sharing agreements, and key issues to raise with co-parents in the early stages of the process.
- Develop increased awareness through an interactive panel discussion on how to guide co-parents using a child-centered process, the benefits of educational support and referral to increase co-parenting skills and support, and the advantages of using a multi-discipline approach to supporting families.
- Learn practical strategies for leveraging resources in different practice settings and the importance of assessing the timing of those resources.

We will conclude the evening with a networking mixer, offering a unique opportunity to connect with peers and discuss innovative approaches to supporting families through divorce.

Don't miss your opportunity to gather with colleagues and experience this one-of-a-kind film and unique educational event.
